Might Not Be Alive.
 McMinnville, Tenn.—Mrs. Ocie Jett, of this place, writes: "I don't believe I would be living today, if it hadn't been for Cardui. I lay in bed 27 days, and the doctor came every day but he did me no good. Finally he advised an operation, but I would not consent, and instead took Cardui. Now I am going about the house, doing my work, and even do my washing. Cardui worked wonders in my case. I am in better health than for five years." Cardui is a strengthening tonic for women, it relieves pain, tones up the nerves, builds strength. Try it. At your druggist's. Advertisement.

WARNING

Trespassing Upon, Defacing, Injuring and Destroying School Property is Wrong Spirit.

From time immemorial thoughtless and lawless persons have considered school property a general target for any and every malicious attack and as a result of this spirit of vandalism, many school houses in this county have been damaged and defaced in various ways.

There is in certain sections of the county at this time a general trespassing upon school property in the way of breaking in through doors and windows, tearing up books, breaking up desks and shooting through doors and windows and the making of the school house a card room and gambling den.

Recently persons entered the Elmo school, spent the night and in their rough house broke up some school furniture. The guilty parties have been apprehended by the trustee, Mr. E. F. Griffin, and are being dealt with in accordance with the crime.

Last fall the Adams school in North Christian suffered from a depredation which resulted in the destruction of the outbuildings and pouring a sweeping compound into the bored well and then driving a piece of 2x4 into the casing of the well. Certain individuals pleaded guilty of the destruction of the outbuildings but denied the filling up of the well, however, it was all done at the same time. The parties who committed this offense were recently fined in the Christian County Circuit Court.

During the Christmas holidays, some one entered the new Cone school and destroyed about five dollars worth of library books. The offenders have not been found yet but a reward has been offered to any evidence leading to their arrest and conviction of same.

A few weeks ago some one took a piece of timber and deliberately smashed into pieces the whole window sash in the Julien colored school. The parties did not enter the house, so it seems that they were doing damage for the fun of it. A reward of $50 has been offered for the offenders in this case.

The County Board of Education realizes that while the school house and school grounds are common property and are supported by public expense, but since they are entrusted to its care and custody, it should be diligent in the preservation and protection of same, therefore it has issued the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, there have been numerous violations of the law with respect to the destruction and injury of school property and school houses in the county; and whereas the County Board of Education recognizes the fact that it must guard the property placed in its hands in some more efficient manner,—therefore, by virtue of an order entered upon the records of the County Board of Education upon the 1st day of February 1916, I am authorized to offer a standing reward of Fifty Dollars ($50), to the persons furnishing information upon which any party or parties are arrested and convicted for the offense of trespassing, or injuring, or destroying the property of the common schools of Christian county.

 County Supt.

 "The author of this novel says the heroine lost herself in a maze of reflections, as she and the hero stood by the railing of an ocean liner." "And what was the hero doing?" "This is one of those society novels. Can't you guess what the hero was doing?" "He was toying with a silver cigarette case."

Get Rid of Odor of Onions.
 Many persons object to onions because of the odor they impart to the breath. There is a way of avoiding this: After eating onions hold a swallow of hot coffee in the mouth for a minute or two and you will not be troubled by any aftertaste or smell.
